If there is overtime pay, I will be obliged to work overtime.

What do your think you friends say about you?

I think I am an easy-going person who can get along well with different people.

How would you rate me as an interviewee?

I want to give you a score of 80. First of all, let me talk about the good things. 1. You speak kindly, which makes me feel less nervous. 2. Your interview was very professional, and I quickly entered the atmosphere of the interview. 3. I think some of the questions mentioned are very good, such as work experience, which gave me the opportunity to talk about my work. 20 points were deducted because: 1. The interview time was a bit short, I am worried that you don't know me well enough, and I still have a lot of good sides to show you. 2. As an interviewee, I am inevitably a little nervous. Although your kind attitude has relieved me a lot, I am still a little restrained. You can use more guidance to encourage the interviewer to express himself.
